AI and Your Language

Name _____

Work with a partner. Compare answers when you finish each problem.

Word bank: half idiom low-resource language more two languages

1. Good morning! Write “Good morning! How are you?” in every language you know.

_____

_____

Languages in our class: _____ How many? _____

2. How AI learned to translate.

AI learned from millions of texts that exist in _____

A language with not much writing online is a _____

AI makes _____ mistakes in these languages, because _____

About _____ of all websites are in English.

3. Grade the AI. Use Google Translate. My language: _____

ELL If English is your only language, use your partner’s language. Your partner grades.

3 = right and sounds natural 2 = I understand it, but it sounds strange 1 = wrong

	Sentence	My grade (3, 2, 1)
A	The library opens at 8 o’clock.
B	Please bring your permission slip by Friday.
C	It’s raining cats and dogs.
D	My teacher gave me a break.
E

Sentence C is an _____ It means _____

4. Back translation. English → my language → English again.

Sentence I chose: _____

Back in English, it said: _____

Did the meaning change? _____ What changed? _____

5. The class chart.

AI did best in _____ maybe because _____

AI did worst in _____ maybe because _____

One mistake AI made in my language: _____

6. Talk about it.

A hospital (should / shouldn't) use AI translation, because _____

_____

A human translator is needed when _____

Go Further (Day 2). Compare two tools. Translate A to E with your class AI tool.

	A	B	C	D	E
Google Translate grade
Class AI tool grade

Which tool is better for my language? _____